"Writing is self-therapy.
I write instead of going to
Dr. Glockenspiel at $30
an hour."

Nell Simon
(1927-)
Quoted in the Chicago Tribune,
October 6, 1968

Why do I write? One of the very particular reasons why I do is to record information about my world. At points in my life I am sure that I write as "self-therapy"; perhaps there is more of a self-therapy aspect to my writing at the moment than I am aware of.

When JVD arrived here soon, he gave me a copy of "The Evolution of the Outhouse" by Ernest E. Clemens, which is inscribed as follows inside the front cover:

"Robert —
Much happiness in your new dwelling & annex!
Connie & Jack"

Very amusing. I read the entire pamphlet (about 30 pages) in one sitting, if you please, but not in the Palazzo Grudefs, rather, in the Rebecca Calville Parlor Chair.

9-11:30 - move filing cabinet organizing; Alvin Seamus cut the hayfields across from me today. This is the second or third time he has done so.

12-4 PM - moved the stereo to the Elkdale wall & put up the wire along the wall and now I can get fairly good FM reception.

at about 3 PM, I went out in the field behind the house and got ^{into the air} the Phoenix kite that DWP gave me. It is very fragile and I did not want to risk tearing it and so I just put it up a little way and that was that. Perfectly beautiful early autumn day - about 70°; breezy and very sunny. I have been luxuriating in the air & light and sun all day long.

Two more substitute teaching applications - Delaware Valley School District - and Susquehanna Community High School. The former is the farthest away ^{yet} - Milford - and I will not send in the form. The other is from the Susquehanna Community High School in Susquehanna; school day 8:10 - 3:25; $50/day. The application is very short and straightforward & so I will send it in.
